A. REISSUANCE AND PURPOSE

This Directive:

- 1. Reissues reference (a) to delegate authority and to update policy and responsibilities regarding use of the authorities of references (b) and (c).
 - 2. Replaces references (d) and (e).
- 3. Authorizes the publication of DoD 4400.1-M, "Department of Defense Priorities and Allocations Manual," and other DoD Manuals, in accordance with DoD 5025.1-M (reference (f)), to implement this Directive.
- 4. Designates the Secretary of the Air Force as the DoD Executive Agent for the Title III of reference (b) program.

B. APPLICABILITY

This Directive applies to the Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Military Departments, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and the Defense Agencies (hereafter referred to collectively as "the DoD Components").

C. POLICY

1. The DoD Components shall make plans and take actions necessary to:

- a. Establish and maintain availability of materials and facilities to help keep priority defense programs on schedule.
- b. Support accelerated production for appropriate defense programs in the event of a national emergency. In addition, anticipate any need for the creation, expansion, or maintenance of domestic productive capacity.
- 2. The plans and actions in paragraphs C.1.a. and C.1.b., above, shall be taken in accordance with the authorities of Title I and Title III of 50 U.S.C. 2061 et seq. (reference (b)) or, if these authorities are repealed or expire, in accordance with 50 U.S.C. 468 (reference (c)) and other applicable statutes, as provided in E.O. 12742 (reference (g)).

D. RESPONSIBILITIES

- 1. The Under Secretary of Defense for Acquisition and Technology shall:
- a. Oversee the execution of authorities delegated to the Secretary of Defense in references (b), (c), (g); E.O. 12919 (reference (h)); and 15 CFR 700 (reference (i)).
- b. Establish policy and guidance, such as a priorities and allocations manual and a manual for Title III of reference (b).
- c. Nominate to the Secretary of Defense for the President's approval, DoD programs of the highest national urgency for inclusion in DoD's Master Urgency List (MUL). If approved for inclusion in the MUL, these programs will be identified under the category code-named BRICK-BAT, and will be assigned priority rating symbol "DX."
- d. Nominate for the Secretary of Defense's approval, DoD programs of the highest defense priority for inclusion in DoD's MUL. If approved for inclusion in the MUL, these programs will be identified under the category code-named CUE-CAP, will use the priority rating symbol "DO" (critical to national defense), and will be ranked in order of relative priority to be applied in the event it is necessary to allocate resources. In that event, CUE-CAP programs will receive priority below DX rated programs but over other DO rated programs.
- e. Develop, publish, and issue the MUL to include programs approved by the President and the Secretary of Defense.
 - f. Determine which other programs are authorized to use Title I of reference (b).
- g. Provide, as appropriate, written delegations of authority to use Title I of reference (b) to the heads of DoD Components and other Federal Agencies, including authority to make requests for special priority assistance (SPA), in accordance with reference (I).

- h. Review requests for SPA and, when necessary, refer such requests to the Department of Commerce for resolution.
- i. Take appropriate actions to resolve priorities and allocations conflicts involving other Federal Agencies, if necessary, by referral under Section 201(c) of E.O. 12919 (reference (h)) to the Assistant to the President for National Security.
- j. Determine whether projects proposed to receive support under Title III of 50 U.S.C. 2061 et seq. (reference (b)) are eligible for such support, select the projects that will receive support, and take action to have included in the President's Budget, or an amendment to the budget, those projects that are selected to receive that support.
